MAY 16TH: JOHN WESSON; AVERIETTE BRANCH, SYLACAUGA, AL

While only 4 acres of the 300 total are devoted to growing fruits & vegetables, the variety at Averiette Branch Farm is amazing: heirloom & hybrid tomatoes, figs, silver queen corn, squash, field peas, butter beans, pole beans, red velvet okra, eggplant, zucchini, watermelon and cantaloupe

MAY 23RD: CHRIS BENNETT; HOLLOW SPRINGS, PELL CITY, AL

He is a former line cook who left the kitchen to get his family's farm, Hollow Spring, back up and running again. Chanterelles!

MAY 30TH: AMA SHAMBULIA; WE COMMUNITY GARDENS, BIRMINGHAM, AL

Through the West End Community Gardens ( we gardens ) Ama has implemented community educational sessions on gardening and health, a community plot program for families, Weed, Seed, Feed & READ for urban kids afterschool program and has partnered with the Jefferson County Family Court Youth Division to start the O.U.R. garden youth project.

JUNE 6TH: EDWIN AND ANDREA MARTY; HAMPSTEAD FARMS, MONTGOMERY, AL

Edwin founded and developed Jones Valley Farm, next to the highway and a HUD Hope VI housing development in downtown Birmingham, AL. Find out what he has been up to lately!

JUNE 13TH: ROD PALMER; OWL'S HOLLOW, GADSDEN, AL

Rod grows over six varieties of tasty, sweet, colorful lettuces and greens including, but not limited to: Dark Ruby Red Lettuce, Romaine Lettuce, Buttercrunch, Sweet Italian Basil, Arugula, Watercress and Opal Basil.

JUNE 20TH: DEBORAH STONE OF STONE HOLLOW FARM STEAD, HARPERSVILLE, AL

Goat Cheese. Delicious goat cheese. Today, Stone Hollow Farmstead houses several diverse businesses: a breeding and training facility for European Hanoverian horses in the discipline of dressage and show jumping, a herb processing facility producing herbal extracts for cosmetic distribution and manufacturing, and a dairy processing facility providing fresh delicious goat cheeses.

JUNE 27TH: ARLIE POWELL OF PETALS FROM THE PAST, THORSBY, AL
